

March 7, 2022

The Keystone Goat Producers Association, Inc. (KGPA) is seeking sponsors for our 2022 KGPA Show Series. This series is a points-based awards program focused on youth exhibitors that runs throughout the year and cumulates at a year-end awards banquet in November. There are currently four shows held throughout Pennsylvania and one show in Virginia included in the series and it typically draws roughly 100 participants and 300 animals from Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and New York.

There are four junior divisions in the series. The market goat, market lamb, and commercial doe divisions are open to all youth under the age of 21. The Junior American Boer Goat Association (JABGA) division is open to all youth under the age of 18. The KGPA is proud to support these juniors and encourage their involvement in the agriculture industry. Many of these youth are current 4-H and/or FFA members. We also recognize participants in the American Boer Goat Association (ABGA) sanctioned shows, which are open to exhibitors of all ages.

Attached you will find information regarding our tiered sponsorship program. We greatly appreciate any and all support you are able to provide for the 2022 KGPA Show Series. Please feel free to reach out for more information or with any questions.

Sincerely,

Keystone Goat Producers Association Board of Directors
